AFRICAN DANCE & DRUM

class SCHEDULE

Children’s Class (Ages 6 - 12)
Tuesdays & Thursdays | 5:00 - 6:00 PM
Dance Instructor: Lynette Simmons
Drum Instructor: Youssou Lo

The children’s dance class focuses on the fundamentals of traditional West African dance and drum rhythms. Students learn basic techniques and choreography that is both traditional and innovative. This class is designed to develop self-confidence, self-esteem, positive teamwork, cultural awareness and leadership skills.

Community Class for Ages 13+
| Saturdays
| African Drum 3:00 - 4:00 PM
| African Dance 4:00 - 5:00 PM

A community class for all levels – beginners and advanced combined – with concentration on traditional and nontraditional movements. With participation from members of the AACC Dance and Drum Performing Company, the class takes on a village-like atmosphere that allows for expression of experience indigenous to African cultures. All ages, both genders, focus on the connection between dance and the drum.
